1. An undertaking is filed today, stating that the petitioner shall not claim any benefit on the basis of the certificate given by the authorities in Madhya Pradesh about her belonging to Mahar caste in that area. Since the date of admission, the petitioner has acquired knowledge of two years study and no fruitful purpose will be served by requiring the petitioner to vacate that seat. In view of the undertaking therefore we confirm the order passed by the caste scrutiny Committee and direct that the admission of the petitioner to the Engineering College shall not be disturbed only on that ground. The certificate produced by her at the time of taking admission is not validated. Petition accordingly disposed of.
